

News Release – Old Florida Celebration of the Arts in Cedar Key, March 24, 2022

2021 Best 3D Artists Return to Cedar Key's Spring Art Festival, April 9 & 10

The Old Florida Celebration of the Arts in Cedar Key is not only an exceptional festival for art enthusiasts to attend, but it is also a favorite of top artists throughout Florida and the southeast US. The event is known for its relaxed and friendly atmosphere, spacious layout and friendly volunteers. Just as 2021 Best of Show winner, Harry Welsch, and 2021 Best 2D winner, Robert Goodlett, have chosen to return to Cedar Key, so have Susan and Jerry Remillard who were named Best 3D artists in 2021 for their outstanding woodwork.

Jerry and Susan of Southwest Ranches, FL have been working together for 55 years. Their one-of-a-kind pieces are motivated by the beauty in life and the world which they hope will inspire people beyond just the reality of everyday life.” The Remillards will be in Booth #51 this year and they appreciate talking to visitors about their unique creations.

Visitors to the Old Florida Celebration of the Arts, which is one of the oldest Art Festival in Florida, can enjoy the art of 100 fine artists and craftsman in a wide variety of disciplines along Historic 2nd Street in Cedar Key Saturday, April 9, 10 am – 5 pm and Sunday, April 10, 10 am – 4 pm. There are artist demonstrations both afternoons from 1-4 pm in addition to music, fun and kids activities in Beachfront City Park. The event benefits the Cedar Key Arts Center, a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and encouraging the arts, and local non-profit school and community groups. Major sponsors include: Levy County Visitors Bureau, Palms Medical Group, Pelican Vacation Home, Duncan's on the Gulf, and the Prevention Coalition of Levy County.
